12. (Secret - JMM) Called Maynard Toll, in the office of Senator Edmund Muskie (D., Maine), to say we could not provide him with the full TRW study mentioned in item 10 above, but would be glad for an appropriately cleared member of the staff to review the study and to provide a sanitized version of the conclusions for the Senator's retention. Toll said this sounded satisfactory and he would turn the matter over to the Committee staff for followup.

13. (Secret - JMM) Philip Trimble, on the staff of the Muskie Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Law and Organization, called pursuant to the Muskie request and we agreed that he should visit the Agency at 8:45 a.m. on Monday, 12 July, to review the study in question and obtain a copy of the conclusion for the Subcommittee's retention.

14. (Confidential - JMM) Senator John C. Stennis' (D., Miss.) secretary, Mrs. Ward, called in behalf of the Senator to let us know that the Senator had talked to Senator Proxmire who had agreed that the Agency provide its information on the Soviet defense budget to the State Department for presentation to the Joint Economic Committee.

15. (Confidential - JMM) Carl Marcy, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called to request a copy of the document quoted by Tad Szulc in today's New York Times. I explained that we would be glad to brief him orally on the subject of the Communist's peace proposals which the document discusses, but could not provide the document. He said he was calling just for the sake of the record.

9. (Confidential - JMM) Accompanied the Director and Messrs. Carver and Newton who appeared before Chairman Mahon and Representatives Andrews and Minshall, of the House Appropriations Committee. See Memorandum for the Record.

10. (Secret - JMM) Met with Chairman Stennis, of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and explained our problems with Senator Proxmire's request for the Director's appearance in an open session of the Joint Economic Committee to discuss the Soviet military budget and Senator Muskie's request for a copy of a sensitive study on the Soviet ICBM program prepared for the Agency by TRW.

Stennis agreed and said he would support my recommendations that Proxmire's request be met by our providing material to the State Department for presentation to the Committee and that Muskie's request be met by providing the conclusion of the study in question and allowing a duly cleared staff member to examine the backup material under our control.

Senator Stennis explained his request for a draft speech he could make on the floor emphasizing the importance of the Agency, the necessity for maintaining its security, and its effectiveness in serving the national interest. He said he wanted me to prepare this speech and include any material I thought useful, and that it was not necessary to coordinate it with members of his staff.

11. (Confidential - JMM) In response to a call to the Director's office from Senator Kennedy's office, I called Mark Schneider, of the Senator's staff. Schneider said the Senator wanted a copy of the CIA publication quoted by Tad Szulc in today's New York Times. I said this was an official publication for the use of the White House, NSC, and other Executive agencies and not available for circulation outside of the Executive community. I told him that while we could not provide the document we would be glad to brief the Senator orally on the significance of the Viet Cong peace proposals which the document discusses. Schneider said he had checked with Mrs. Davis, of the White House, who said it was not an NSC publication. I said it had not been requested by the NSC but was disseminated to NSC members and to the Executive officials. He asked the classification and I said I was not sure but believed it was higher than confidential. He asked if the item contained anything more than the passages quoted by the Times. After consulting with Mr. Carver and checking with the Director, I called Schneider back to say the portions quoted by the Times did not represent the full text.
